Recommended walking course to discover Kyoto

Kyoto is a rich historical city that is also exceptionally accessible by foot. Allow us to introduce walking courses around the Cross Hotel Kyoto that you can easily visit.

The Kiyamachi Walking Course, About 1 hour

a historical area that offers a glimpse into local life in Kyoto. This walking course along the Takasegawa River, called "Kiyamachi" used to be known as the lumber merchant district. You can still see examples of traditional culture and local peoples' lives from different eras of Kyoto's extended history.

Lively and Bustling Area, inherit of culture of Kyoto
Downtown area of Kyoto, a center of culture since the mid-15th century.
The very first movie in Japan was shown in this neighborhood.

Quiet and peaceful area, loved by artists and writers
This quiet and relaxing neighborhood is lined with centuries-old restaurants.
The west side of the Takasegawa River is the dining area that runs along a narrow footpath, with many hidden gems.

Retro and elegant area in which wooden architecture survives
South of Gojo Street was once Kyoto's largest entertainment district. Wooden buildings are everywhere and you can feel the atmosphere back in the 18th century.
Why don't you explore this area if you would like to experience a much deeper understanding of Kyoto's history.
